DESCRIPTION

BOMMA's meticulously crafted leather and horsehair surrounding firmly embraces its hand-blown crystal elements. This unconventional romantic bond celebrates a world of contradictions and the permanent essence of glass. The original design of this collection combines two absolutely precise crafts - perfect leather processing and traditional glassmaking. While the object encased in black leather provokes with its strong bondage aesthetic, the natural-brown version at once highlights both the solidity and fragility of glass. Tied-Up Romance transcends the meaning of lighting to yet another level
